LOS ANGELES.

The JOURNAL readers will please pardon the scribe for being several months behind with the Los Angeles news, owing to pressure of business. At times he has wondered whether the non-appearance of the Los Angeles news in the JOURNAL for so long is being talked of. No doubt, the readers will be rather surprised at the re-appearance of them in the paper. We hope to keep up the correspondence with the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL as long as possible.

At the meeting of the Silent Club held in Roosevelt Hall on the evening of the 28th ult., the election of officers for the ensuing six months took place after a brief business meeting and resulted as follows: President, B. Burress; Vice-President, Mrs. S. Johnson; Secretary, Mrs. H. Terry; Treasurer, W. Cook, and Director, Mrs. M. Mercer. The club has really made very successful progress since it was independently organized last January by the only decided and spirited man, Who is he? He is William H. Phelps. Much praise for the success of the club, owing th his most strenuous work, can be given to him, who has real spirit and interest in the deaf, though he is deaf as well. The previous officers of the newly organized club were President, W. Phelps; Vice President, Mrs. F. Burress; Secretary, T. Marsden; Treasurer, A. Nolen; and Director, E. Price. There are one hundred and twenty-five members enrolled, and more are to come. Watch it grow.

Mr. George Mosser's cottage at Newport Beach has been leased by Mr. and Mrs. F. Roberts for the summer. They are accompanied by their constant companion, Mr. Sparling, of Colorado, and are enjoying the breeze and swimming and motoring there.

Mr. August Schultz is now a benedict. He returned from a month's visit in Missouri two weeks ago, bringing with him his new bride. They have been sweethearts since their childhood days in school. Mr. and Mrs. Schultz were pleasantly surprised on a recent evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burress, when a party of guests called to offer congratulations and wish them many years of married life together.

Mr. Omar Smith is now a grass-widower, as his wife left for Arkansas to visit with her mother, who is in falling health. Mrs. Smith will be gone all summer.

Mr. O. Guire has just returned from Gallaudet College in Washington, D. C., for his vacation. He is stopping off to meet his old acquaintances on his way home to San Bernardino. He looks just the same as formerly, but seems to be weary from nine months' hard study in college. He has two more years to go.

Complimentary to Miss Beulah Money, who left for San Francisco last Sunday, where she is soon to be married, her mother entertained Friday evening a company of twenty guests. The dancing and refreshments concluded the pleasant evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Wood are our frequent callers. As evidence they showed up at the Silent Club last Saturday night. They always motor down and back again to their ranch in Oxnard, sixty miles from here. Also Mr. and Mrs. Norton, of Ventura.

Through the JOURNAL, friends of Mr. Lewis Peterson here were pleased to learn of his recent marriage in San Francisco. Hearty congratulations are extended to him.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Handley, both formerly of Gallaudet College, have been recently married and settled down comfortably in their beautiful bungalow in Whittier, not far from here.

Mr. E. C. Ould, formerly of Santa Ana, is back in town from his visit with his daughter in Harford. He looks the real picture of health.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans celebrated the Fourth by motoring down here from Tulare, and taking part in the picnic, and spending the next day at Catalina Island. Before returning home Mr. Evans attended the Frat meeting, and got goated, but enjoyed the fun exceedingly.

Miss Lillian Shea is among the local deaf once more, after two years' absence. She expects to return to Oakland in two weeks. She attended the picnic at Anaheim Landing, and enjoyed it ever so much, despite being badly sunburnt. She said she would in the future make her permanent home here and then join the Silent Club.

Mr. Small, formerly of Berkeley, but graduate of Jacksonville, Ill., came here from Chicago by motor, accompanied by his charming wife. They are spending the summer in Southern California before returning East. We hope they will take a good opinion of our climate and city with them.

Many friends of Harry Bimble in Chicago will be pleased to know of his being with the Silent Angelenos now. He is stuck on the climate and seriously thinks of returning to the "Pork City."

Mr. Howard Wood and Miss Lucile Wheeler, graduates of the Washington School for the Deaf, at Vancouver, are among the local deaf. They have fully decided to be full-fledged Angelenos.

Mr. and Mrs. Benedict and their only deaf son motored down here from Portersville and spent the Fourth at Anaheim Landing, and attended the Silent Club, and enjoyed themselves to the limit.

Mr. Oliver Boretti, of San Jose, has been in Southern California for over a week, taking in places of interest and attending the picnic at the Anaheim Landing on the Fourth. He had never been here before, and he had no idea how great our city is.

Misses Mabel Meyers and Ella Roy, who are inseparable chums, were down to San Diego to visit their friends on the Fourth. They missed the grand picnic at Anaheim Landing on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe, recently married, left for an Eastern trip some time ago, and will return here some time in the fall, unless a fortune turns up. We are just wondering how they get along.

Mr. William Ward, who was again taken ill and sent to the Good Samaritan Hospital, to undergo an operation, is now able to be about at home. He has been advised not to work any more, and is taking life easy on an income recently given him by his rich brother.

Prof. Runde, of the California School for the Deaf, accompanied by his charming wife, has torn away from nine months' strenuous labor and spends his three months' vacation by coming down here and meeting his old college mates and old pupils and friends, and taking in Southern California. They came in time to attend the picnic at Anaheim Landing, where he was given a warm reception. He attended the Frat meeting before leaving for the North.

From Omaha, Neb., came Mrs. Waldo Rothert and her three sons and maid, who are now occupying rooms at the Lola Apartment, a few blocks from her brother William Phelps. Her husband is expected to join his family very soon. They all will remain here until the opening of the school, and return East. They have been here before. We do hope they will soon be greatly impressed by our beautiful climate and city, which might tempt them to become permanent Angelenos.

The Local Division, No. 27, and the Silent Club, have almost been deprived of their two popular members, but are now rejoiced over their determination to stay here instead of going to Akron, O., to get positions with the Goodyear Tire Company. They are R Depew and R. Hawvichorst.

Mr. F. Simpson, who recently met with an accident by getting his left thumb badly cut at the Southern Box factory, took advantage of this by skipping out of town to visit his folks at Fresno.

A large delegation of pupils arriving from Berkeley, where the Deaf School closed for the summer, was met by their folks and old schoolmates at the Southern Pacific depot a few weeks ago.

In addition to those who own autos in Los Angeles are Messrs. Thomas Marsden and U. Cool. The former's is a Ford and the latter's a Kissel. We wonder if they are going to put up a race at the Ascot Speedway in the near future. They seem to have found lots of pleasure in motoring.

The three correspondents for the three different newspapers are kept busy boosting for Greater Los Angeles. They are Mrs. H. Terry for the Silent Worker, Mr. H. Terry for the Nugget, and E. Price for the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL.

The orators to appear at the Silent Club are as follows: Prof. Greener, of Ohio, on the 12th inst.; Mrs. S. Balis, of Canada on the 19th inst.; and Prof. Waldo Rothert, of Nebraska on the 26th inst. Their lectures will be worth seeing, indeed.

Last June 26th, was the most glorious day here in honor of Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, our ace of aces. On Broadway, which was appropriately decorated with American flags and pictures of the famous aviator, many thousands of people fortunately secured a very plain glimpse of him riding in an auto, which was in the form of an aeroplane like the one he had in France, made of California flowers only in the great parade. Several aeroplanes flew overhead and dropped bombs and flowers. Captain Rickenbacker received many handsome gifts, one of them being a huge diamond ring from the City of Los Angeles. After he has completed his itinerary he will return and live here permanently. We may be fortunate enough to see his face frequently.

To show him his new, large four-room apartment, Mr. Wm. Phelps took the writer with him in his auto recently. It is one of the most attractive apartments in the western part of town, where the wealthy class reside, and embodies many pleasing features, both inside and outside.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Olive Jaseph, of New York, to Mr. Melvin Clements, of Kansas, is quite a surprising bit of news to the local deaf and also their friends back East. After their marriage they will reside here permanently.

Mr. Saxton Gilmore wears his broad smile daily. The reason being that he has done away with his old "Overland" and purchased a new "Oldsmobile." Which of these autos is speedier, is up to him.

A party of well-appointed friends riding in a line of autos motored out to Mr. Norton's ranch and spent a whole day pleasantly, a few Sundays ago. They were fortunate not to meet any accident either way. Mr. and Mrs. B. Wood, motoring from Oxnard, also joined the party.

There is another addition to the local, deaf by the name of Mrs. Annie E. Cummings, who shook off the dust of Portersville, and came here to be a permanent Angeleno.

Mr. William Phelps and his older daughter and Mr. Briscoe stood their recent ride bravely in the Curtis biplane above the city of Hollywood for an hour. They said the trip was so wonderful and peaceful, and was much preferable to auto.

Last Sunday afternoon Prof. Runde, of Berkeley, preached a very interesting sermon to a very large gathering at the Congregational Church. Miss Chenoweth sang a beautiful poem by signs afterwards.

Miss Leah Ulrich, who just graduated from Berkeley, entertained her guests at her home in Whittier, Thursday last. The guests were Prof, and Mrs. Runde, Mr. and Mrs. Handley and Miss Isabelle Hultene.

The daughter of the writer, Miss Isabelle Price, was recently married to Mr. Arthur Hultene, of Iowa. Immediately after the marriage they took a train to San Diego and spent a week there They have settled down comfortably at the Richards apartments. Mr. Hultene has a very remunerative position with the Crouch Jewelry. They received many nice wedding presents at their recent reception.

In honor of her guest, Mrs Waldo Rothert, of Omaha, Neb., Mrs. William Phelps entertained at her beautiful home, to a large party of ladies last Thursday afternoon.

A few weeks ago M. R. Hauvichorst made the unfortunate discovery that his two suits, suit-case, scarfpin and his wife's face powder were missing at his apartments. While away some one entered their rooms with a skeleton key and ransacked them. Soon after this they decided to move back into the apartment which they formerly occupied.

Mr. and Mrs. Levin Larson have given up their plan of going East on a motor trip to visit their homes. They will stay here permanently, owing to the climate agreeing with Mr. Larson, whose throat has troubled him greatly.

Having spent several weeks in Southern California, Mrs. Charlie O. Wright left for San Francisco last Saturday to join her husband, who has a fine position there. Mrs. Wright enjoyed the picnic at Anaheim Landing exceedingly on the Fourth.

Mr. Edward Daly, who has been Mr. Hultene's constant companion since childhood, surprised him by calling at his apartment on his arrival from Iowa. Mr. Daly spent a month with him, visiting every point of interest in Southern California, and returned home last week. Before departing for the East he said he would never forget what a grand time he had during his visit here, especially the bad sunburn he got. He also said he liked it here so much, that he would make the city his permanent home in the near future.

The Los Angeles Silent Club held its first annual picnic at Anaheim Landing, near Seal Beach, on the Fourth. The picnic was the best affair they ever had in the history of Los Angeles, the deaf-mutes remaining from sunrise to sunset without dispersing and treating each other with cordial hospitality. They all enjoyed the picnic more than they had expected, and will never forget what a good time they had there. As near as we can judge there were at least two hundred picnickers, including the guests from their ranches and villages in every direction by motor. Among them were: Prof. Runde and his wife, of Berkeley, and Mrs. Waldo Rothert, of Omaha, Neb. Prof. Runde in the role of a "stump" orator, stood in Mr. Phelps' "Stutz" and delivered a fine lecture to the silent picnickers. Immediately after the lecture the afternoon was devoted to games, which were too numerous to mention. They were full of fun, especially the ball game and tug-of-war. Many nice prizes were awarded to the victors. When it was getting dark the picnickers started for their homes, harboring many pleasant recollections of their grand time at the picnic. Credit for the success of the picnic is due to the Committee. Hats off to them.

MARYLAND.

PICNIC AND EXCURISON.

HISTORY.—The Annual Picnic Association of the Deaf of Maryland was founded in 1882 by the late Mr. William R. Barry, who was for many years President of the Board of Visitors of the Maryland State School for the Deaf, Frederick, Maryland.

OBJECT.—The object of the Picnic Association, as made known by Mr. Barry, was to give the Deaf of the State of Maryland an opportunity for open-air social intercourse and athletic enjoyment, at least once a year, on the first Wednesday in August. For this purpose Druid Hill Park was selected as the meeting place of the Association, this meeting to be followed by an excursion down the Bay on the following day, Thursday.

PRESENT STATUS.—The Status of the Picnic Association remains as originally established. It appoints its own Committee of Arrangements at each gathering. This Committee remains in office until the close of the next meeting. The Picnic Association is dominated by no other organization in the state, whatever. Its freedom from class distinctions is its characteristic feature.

SUPPORT.—The Picnic Association desires no support beyond what is necessary to provide small and inexpensive prizes in the athletic contests and a simple luncheon for those coming from the counties. These funds are provided by voluntary offerings, and by lectures, and whenever possible, by small commissions granted by the Excursion Companies to the Committee of Arrangement.

ATTENDANCE.—The average attendance at the meetings in Druid Hill Park during the past ten years has been over 175. The Committee in charge of the forthcoming meeting desires to increase this number to 400 or more. With this end in view it extends a warm welcome to all deaf-mutes living in the State of Maryland. It especially welcomes the young children of the Maryland School for the Deaf, who may be home on their annual summer vacation. It urges all parents and friends of these children to come themselves and enjoy one day of freedom in beautiful Druid Hill and an additional day on the expansive bosom of the Chesapeake Bay. Every effort will be made by the Committee to make these TWO DAYS OF ENJOYMENT.

A cordial inviation is extended to you, your parents, to your relatives and your friends. Come to Grove No. 8, Druid Hill Park, on August 6th (all day), and do not forget the Excursion to Tolchester on the Chesapeake on the following day, AUGUST 7TH.

Further details will be announced at the Grove.

National Association Convention.

IT is announced that the Executive Board of the National Association of the Deaf has decided upon August 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th, as the dates for the Thirteenth Convention, to be held in Detroit, Michigan,

National Association of the Deaf.

GREATER NEW YORK BRANCH.

The membership "drive" is on, and there will be no let up! Since the last mass meeting held on June 28th, over 150 have responded, and many more are coming in soon. Have you joined?

Let it be clearly understood that this new organization is not a "club" in the ordinary sense of the word. It aims to be a sort of Federation of all the deaf in Greater N. Y., and is here to stay! It's officers do not intend to indulge in any oratorical fire-works, or what is commonly known as "hot air." However, it must be obvious to all right-minded persons that its opportunities for serving the deaf community are limited in proportion to the measure of co-operation accorded it by the deaf themselves. "In Union there is Strength" is not only trite but still true. This is the day of constructive Reconstruction, and it would be folly to deny it. Those who foolishly hesitate or refuse to affiliate themselves with the Greater N. Y. Branch of the N. A. D. might please their own vanity when in truth they'll simply be cutting off their noses to spite their faces.

The next Mass meeting for the purpose of electing officers, adopting a New Constitution and By-Laws, etc., will be held during the month of September. Formal announcement will be given in due time. Only members will be entitled to vote and take part in its discussions.

Representatives will be present at the several Outings of the deaf this summer to receive your membership application. The fee is only $1.00. JOIN!

Your application can be mailed direct to the JOURNAL office or to any of the undersigned officers, who will be glad to give any desired information.

Deaf-Mutes Married.

Mr. Hilby W. Mills and Miss Madeline N. Stevens, both of whom are popular members of the deaf-mute community of Baltimore, were quietly married at the home of the Rev. O. J. Whildin, Minister in charge of the Deaf-Mute Mission of Grace and St. Peter's Church, Park Avenue and Monument Street, at six o'clock on the afternoon of July 20th, in the presence of a number of friends and relatives. Both the young people were pupils at the State School for the Deaf at the same time, but it was not until after they left school that they met and formulated the plans that resulted in their marriage. Mr. Mills is a member of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, and Treasurer of the Bible Class of Grace and St. Peter's Mission, while Mrs. Mills is one of the leading members of the Choir of the same Mission. Afterthe wedding a supper was tendered the couple at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Annie Jones, 1920 Cecil Avenue.

CHICAGO.

They say that Chicago is a "mammoth" city with an estimated population of two thousand deaf souls. Yet the amount of news obtainable would make this claim ridiculous.

There are plenty of enthusiastic JOURNAL readers reminding me of the dearth of news appearing in my Chicago letters of late, but when these same persons are asked to furnish an item or two they balk. The deaf as a rule are too good—they have not done anything scandalous, nor adopted the usual tactics of criminals. This leaves the only thing to write about the going and coming of visitors to summer resorts—our annual humdrum picnic affairs.

Well, let's get down to the tedious task of drumming up something decent to write about, and let the readers supply me with an avalanche of breezy items next time. Drop your news items in the JOURNAL News Box, Room 344 Unity Bldg. I thank you!

A sister of John E. Purdum from Arkansas is expected to spend the summer with him. Mr. Purdum has a pretty bungalow in Oak Park which he does not want to sell.

Ross MacDonald, who has worked for some time with Butler Bros. on the day shift, is experiencing a new change for a few months on the night force.

Harry Unrug had a good position with the Standard Steel Co. of Hammond, Ind., but since the armistice was signed he has been placed on the list of unemployment. He expects to work for the Stewart-Warner Speedometer Co., this city, and while waiting for good luck to turn up he is making regular trips to St. Joseph, Mich., where his parents live.

William Wiggers, who went to Evansville, Ind., with the intention of spending a month with his parents, has written a letter to the secretary of the Pas-a-Pas Club, tendering his resignation as first vice-president, but retaining his membership as a non-resident. In his letter he gave the club a big boost.

Mr. Wiggers' office as vice-president is now filled by Fred Kaufman, who was second vice-president. By an unanimous vote, August Whitman was elected to fill the latter vacancy.

At the literary meeting last Saturday evening, there was a packed house in the rooms of the Pas-a-Pas Club. This was remarkable when one considers the intense heat that evening. Prof. Albert Berg, teacher at the Indianapolis school, delivered a masterful reading from Shakespeare. He held his audience spellbound for a solid two hours. A vote of thanks was tendered him on motion of Dr. Geo. T. Dougherty. The response of the club's appreciation was swift and unanimous.

Miss Alexina Ferguson and Mrs. Fred Young left Chicago July 19th for camp at Lake Delavan, Wis. They will be gone several weeks and will be guests of Mrs. Ernest Craig and children. Mr. Young, who wouldn't stand being dubbed a "grass widower," will join the party this week.

Ernest Craig makes a regular week-end trip to Lake Delavan, Wis., which accounts for his Saturday and Sunday absence from the tennis court in Washington Park.

Mr. and Mrs. James Watson will spend a couple of weeks in Milwaukee, Wis., as guests of Mrs. Watson's son. This is the time Mr. Watson is enjoying a vacation from his duties as timekeeper for the downtown post office.

There was a large delegation of frats attending the first annual picnic of the Kenosha, Wis., division, last Sunday, July 20th. The trip was made on the North Shore route. According to those who went there, a splendid time was enjoyed.

The Pas-a-Pas Club is holding its thirty-seventh annual picnic at Polonia Grove, 4600 Archer Avenue, today, Saturday. There is a threatening street car strike starting at twelve noon today, and if it does come, those who start early will have a "bully" time trying to get back home. If it rains it will not dampen their ardor. Chairman La Motte, who is an energetic hustler for the picnic, says that practically all members have gone beyond the bounds of generosity by donating all the way from one to ten dollars towards the picnic fund. It is said the amount is nearly over $150. If the Pas-a-Pas Club members maintain this liberal attitude, it will not be surprising if you ever hear of a new club house.

William Wanner is an enthusiastic Chicago lover. His home is in Grand Rapids, Mich. His occupation is that of fireman on a lake steamer plying between Holland and Chicago. Most any Saturday evening or Sunday, we find him patronizing our clubs and churches. The deaf in his Michigan home town are lonesome without him.

Geo. E. Morton's absence from our circles is due to his whole time being devoted to putting his home on MacLean Street in a high class modern shape. His oldest son, who has been in California for over a year, is now back home.

Mrs. Walter Whitson gave birth to a boy, June 29th. She expects to leave for Kansas this month, where the boy will be christened in in the same church where the marriage ceremony was performed. Her hearing husband is a traveling salesman for a fire insurance company.

The Knights of De l'Epee give their annual picnic tomorrow, Sunday, at the same grove where the P. A. P. Club is holding its affair today. In view of the threats of Chicago's street car and elevated men to go on strike at noon today, the picnic cannot be a success. Walking to the grove would be out of the question, as the distance is too great. But here's hoping that everything will turn out favorable for the boys.

James F. Donnelly, editor of the Catholic Deaf-Mute, passed through Chicago recently, enroute to St. Louis, Mo., where a Catholic Conference was in progress. While in Chicago he was entertained by Edward Toomey. He did not have time to spare to call on the S. A. C. or P. A. P. club rooms.

If you are a cutter or first-class tailor, or know of deaf friends at present out of work, Alfred iebenstein, an expert union cutter, wants to reach you. His firm, Hart Schaffner & Marx, are needing more help. The wages are high and conditions in the shop are ideal and sanitary.

HARTFORD.

In walking through the school grounds lately we found Messrs. Chas. F. Dennody and Ernest Smith busy caring for gardens and lawn. We also saw three men surveying with chains, lines and instruments. But otherwise, nothing doing. Principal Wheeler and Mrs. Wheeler are still there, but most of his teachers are out of town on their vacations.

There are three deaf men only, so far as we know, to whom auto licenses have been granted in the State of Connecticut—Messrs. W. C. Rockwell, Howard L. Backus, of Waterbury, and Geo. W. Day, of Bristol. These are young, alert deaf, with good mechanical ability.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Rock and their oldest daughter, Carrie, and her husband, have moved from Franklin Street to 22 Benton Street, near Wethersfield Avenue, and not far from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Clarke.

Walter C. Rockwell, who is in business with his father, as Rockwell and Sons, Box Manufacturers, spends the week ends at his parents' summer cottage, Indian Neck, Branford. The late Dr. Edward M. Gallaudet spent the summers there for many years, first living in an old farmhouse, on a small island, about one half mile off shore, and later in a cottage he built on the mainland. When he first went there for the summers there was hardly a house in sight, now all the shore at Indian Neck is built up with attractive summer cottages and a big hotel.

Miss Mary Dougherty, of the school staff, has gone to the Adirondacks for the summer, with a family of hearing people with whom she formerly worked.

Mrs. A. Gordon Marshall, nee Emma Scott, was a recent visitor in Waterbury, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R Erbe. She was on a visit to her mother and sister in Winsted, Ct.

W. G. Durian is working for the summer at the Hartford Printing Co., on State Street, and A. Santin, an able young deaf man, who graduated last June from the School here and goes to Gallaudet College next Fall, is working with him. Mr. Durian had an adventure with his deaf boy scouts, one Saturday last June, which but for his pluck and ability to swim strongly might have been a tragedy. But such dire threats against us have been expressed if we print the details, and give names, that we forbear.

Miss Eliza Green, for so many years a supervisor at the school, and who is widely known among the deaf, is spending the summer in Hartford, rooming at No. 12 Trinity Street, until school opens in the Fall.

Mrs. Madore Jallivette, of Pittsfield, Mass., formerly of Malone, N. Y., was baptized at the Silent Mission Service at St. Stephen's Church in that city, on a recent Sunday. Her name before her marriage was Hattie Reed, and she was a schoolmate at Fanwood many years ago with Mrs. John B. Valles, nee Mary Green, of Waterbury, and Mrs. Margaret Syle, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Anthony Razzina, of Springfield, Mass.

Mr. A A. Stevenson and his mother spent a week or more, recently, visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stevenson, at Saybrook. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson now have a fine family of wide-awake children, two girls and three boys.

Prof. John E Crane, Mrs. Crane, and their two daughters, the oldest a teacher in Hartford public schools, and the youngest a pupil in the Hartford High School, are spending the summer at Deer Isle, Maine, Mrs. Crane's former home. That is a fine country down there, on the cool, ocean-swept coast. Acres of fine blueberries, fish for catching any day, clams for digging at any time, and a mess of "short" lobsters, if you are neighbor to some lobster fisherman. And it is a long, long ways from these smoky, smelly dead-air cities.

The Royal Typewriter Company has a big drum and fife band and they were in the big street parade, July 4th. A son of Mrs. Fannie Timmerman is a member of it.

Near the new cottage of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Barrows, out Cedar Hill way, some twelve new dwelling houses are being built. And in about every section of Hartford new dwellings and apartments are being built. But traveling by trolley through the country out of the city one sees very little building and little or no new land being cleared and planted.

Our deaf people here in Connecticut, who complain of increased trolley fares of six and seven cents, should visit Boston, where one pays ten cents every time he rides on a trolley car, whether for five blocks or five miles.

The Silent Mission that meets at Christ Church held a Summer service at St. James' Church, in West Hartford, Sunday afternoon of July 6th. After the service, a lunch was served by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Luther and Miss Atkinson and Miss Cox. In the early evening it was planned to walk up the village street to the new school grounds, but the winds blew and the rains descended and the thunder rolled so loudly, that even we deaf people "felt" it, and that evening walk plan came to naught. However, we would have seen nothing of the new school grounds at West Hartford, except the unbroken acres of rolling grass land and an abandoned farm dwelling thereon. Nothing has been done out there yet. That Sunday service for the deaf was the first of many Sunday services for the deaf that will in years to come be held in that West Hartford community. We refer to the new school chapel services.

Elmira, N. Y.

The Empire State Association of the Deaf will hold a convention in town, August 21st, 22d and 23d. The Secretary has appointed Mrs. Morris H. Knox Chairlady of the Local Committee. She appointed Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. William Fitzpatrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray to assist her for the coming convention.

We are very grateful to Rev. Mr. Hubbard, the pastor of Trinity Church, for his interest in us, and he is doing all he can to help us to make the convention a success. He has written to Bishop Olmsted, of Utica, to secure a minister in place of the late Rev. Van Allen, to hold service to the deaf.

The Committee has not yet decided the doings of the first evening. Friday evening, a reception will follow the service at Trinity Church Parish House.

Saturday morning—a trip to Watkins' Glen (twenty-two mile trolley ride). Mr. Gibson, the Grand Secretary of the N. F. S. D., visited there last year and he said it was one of the most wonderful places he had ever visited.

Mrs. Knox requests that letters for information should be sent to Frank Murray, 320 West Avenue.

Mr. William Fitzpatrick was given a surprise birthday picnic at Eldridge Park, last Sunday. Twenty-five were present. Mr. and Mrs. Minkle and child, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson, Miss Gertrude Welch, Miss Ada Share and sister, all of Corning, N. Y., were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh are moving to his parents' farm above Roricks Glen.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have moved to Corning, N. Y., where he has secured employment in a railroad car shop.

Columbus, O.

The Columbus Branch of the N. A. D. is planning a picnic for Labor Day, September 1st, and extends an invitation to the deaf of Central Ohio, and to all the deaf, to join with them on that day, on the grounds at the School for the Deaf, and have a good time meeting old friends and making new ones.

Good eats are promised at reasonable prices, and soft drinks for the thirsty, and ice cream and sweets will be on hand, too.

The Columbus deaf are noted for their hospitality, and it is hoped that all the deaf within a convenient distance of Columbus will make their plans to be there on Labor Day. Mr. Showalter is the president of the Columbus branch and the picnic plans are in charge of Mr. Fred. Schwartz. Both of these gentlemen believe in doing well whatever they undertake, so you can feel sure of a good time. Note it down NOW—"Labor Day at Columbus." PUBLICITY.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Monnin, of Canton, was married June 18th and spent the honeymoon in a trip on the lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Charles and daughters are now at Bayport Park, Fenton, Mich. They made the trip up in their father's automobile, 280 miles in one day, on the 18th inst.

SANTA BARBARA.

July 17, 1919.—Just one month ago this morning we left the good old town, Columbus, Ohio, bound to the setting sun. In an inside pocket we carried an invitation from the Los Angeles Silent Club to make an address to its members when in the Angelic City. Saturday morning last, our kind host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Park, wheeled us over in their auto. There are three routes from Santa Barbara to Los Angeles, and the middle route from Ventura was chosen. From Montecito to the Ventura, the road zigzags along the rolling Pacific, whose dashing waves and their moanings fell upon deaf ears. Alas! But there is compensation for every loss, and so the cooling breezes that came from the great expanse of the sea brought pleasure and made the ride as well as the scenery indeed enjoyable as we passed along. After leaving Ventura and the ocean we passed along cultivated sections, there were long stretches of beans in some places, of English walnuts, and apricot groves and lemons. The bean crop will only average about fifty per cent. of a full crop, because of weather conditions. The walnut trees are heavily loaded and if no enemy comes between now and time of fruition, the crop, will be great. Apricot trees were heavily laden with fruit, in some places just turning yellow and crimson, in others pickers had just been or were picking the fruit. We zigzagged up, down and around high elevations, and passed along rocky ravines and again green fields and then into Hollywood, a place of fine residences, spacious lawns, bedecked with palms and flowers, climbing roses, geraniums rich in bloom and of every hue. It will not be long before Hollywood will be part of Los Angeles, though quite a distance from it now, so fast is the growth of the Angelic City.

At 1:15, we reached the Savoy Hotel, having made the trip of 103 miles in four and a half hours and it was certainly a fine one to an Easterner unfamiliar with the great expanse of California, with its mountains, valleys and gorges. And Los Angeles. How it has grown! From a small city in 1897, when we first set foot in it, till now, she has become one of magnificent distances, dotted with large and lofty buildings, well paved streets, numerous street cars, fine residences that indicate wealth and refinement. The business center of the city, at times, seems a perfect beehive. Broadway, for instance, is thronged with people from early morn till late into the night and compares favorably with the busy thoroughfares of New York City. It will not be long ere the city will outstrip San Francisco at the present rate of population and growth.

In the evening, we repaired to Roosevelt Hall, where the "Silent Club" has a large room and holds its weekly meetings Saturday evenings. The entertainments are of a social and literary character.

The hall was well filled on the evening in question, over 150 being present, a number coming from a distance. After the preliminaries, the writer was introduced and spoke on Patriotism, having first eulogized the state on its variety of attractions and resources that draw people to it. He was followed by Mr. James M. Park, with a few remarks on sticking to one's trade and laying up for a rainy day. Mrs. Phelps Rothert, of Nebraska, rendered to fine effect a poem, "Liberty Enlightening the World"; Mrs. Terry, on "The Handicaps of the Deaf"; Mr. Marsden, "Job Hunting," and Mr. Ould, holding on "One's Job." A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the visiting speakers for addresses and renditions. The President, Mr. Bert E. Burress, then announced that Mrs. J. C. Balis, of Canada, would address the Club on the 19th, and Mr Rothert, of Omaha, Neb., on the evening of the 26th, and hoped both of the speakers would be greeted with an attendance like this evening's. The remainder of the evening was spent socially, and we had the pleasure of meeting the following former Ohioans, Mr. and Mrs Gustav Geyer, of Hollywood. Mrs. Geyer, nee Grigsby, left the Ohio School in 1859, her husband in 1860. They had been living in Galesburg many years before coming to California. Mr. Geyer has retired as a harness maker and is still strong and hale for his age, and expects to attend the Ohio reunion next year. And we ran into Harry D. Mercer, one of our former pupils, who left the school in 1888 and went to Nebraska, where he slung type till 1905, coming then to California, where he still follows the art preservative. Next we came face to face with another former pupil of ours, Miss Mary Rose, now Mrs. Moesser, who introduced us to her husband. Their home is in Santa Anna, California. From the same place, Elsworth Towser, who moved there last October, from Ohio, and is having work every day as a stone cutter, his trade, at good or better wages than he got in Ohio. Alvin T. Dyson, from Lawndale, we easily recognized in the crowd. He still holds on to his job as a pressman in a printing establishment. When attending the N. A. D. Convention in Colorado Springs, in 1910, we met Frank H. Chaney, who left the Ohio School 1866. He was then a barber. We had the pleasure of meeting him again at the Club, also his second wife. They now are making their home in Hollywood, near Los Angeles. Another Ohioan was Miss Mary Waters, who left the school in the eighties. We also had the pleasure of meeting a number of deaf seen at former N. A. D. conventions, among them Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Rothert, Mr. and Mrs. Tenney, Miss Coe, Mr. and Mrs. Phelps, and several others whose names have slipped our memory.

Our party left Los Angeles at 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning, and were back home at 1:15, with a stop of twenty minutes at Ventura for lunch. The route this time was along the coast and was as interesting as the one going. It was varied some in that there were more green fields of beans, cornfields, too, that came up to the standard of Ohio. Wheatfields, from which the grain had been cut and threshed and hauled away and the straw baled. One large ranch, of a thousand or more acres, containing cattle, hogs and horses. Seeing them indicated that there was no necessity in the high price of meat of the two former. And there are other ranches like them in other parts of the State.

The most interesting part of the route home was the Conejo Pass. From its summit, a grand view is had of the green fields below and the many mountain peaks surrounding the valley, and then the descent with its many curves and indents along the road, a skid of the machine to the right means death to the occupants, for they would be hurled over the rocks many feet below.

The only deaf we have so far met in Santa Barbara are Mr. and Mrs. Wood. Coming from Canada, Mr. Wood is quite an artist and could make a name for himself were he to apply himself professionally.

Mr. Norman Lambert, educated in the Berkeley School, is the scion of one of the oldest daring families of the County Santa Barbara. He lives about five miles from the Parks and is a rancher by occupation. As a deer hunter in this part of the country, he is A No. 1. Another deaf person living near is Miss Mary Dunn. She was educated in the Indiana School. Later came over to Columbus to work for the family of P. M. Park. When the latter moved to California, she came along. Since their death she has been employed in and about the city as such, and is now working for a rich family about a mile from where we are staying.

A fleet of four submarines of Uncle Sam is in the harbor now and forms quite an attraction of the city. The officers and men are shown every courtesy by the city in the way of feasts and amusements. Later on, the Pacific fleet is expected to stop here on its way up to San Francisco, and arrangements are being made to welcome it. President Wilson and Secretary of the Navy Daniels are expected along, too. Probably, when here, the President will take a peep at the site his son-in-law, McAdoo, has bought for his future use. Probably the first week in August will see us homeward bound. Meanwhile, we propose to rest and enjoy the climate, flowers, fruits and rest, which we sure are doing.

BUFFALO, N. Y.

On July 6th, Mrs. Albert Basher and three bright children departed for Lancaster, N. Y., to spend their vacation with her husband's relatives. They reported having a fine time. At present, Mr. Basher is having his vacation with full pay from his employers, the J. L. Hudson Clothiers.

Mrs. Lawrence Gerrity, of Ashtabula, O., with her three bright children, is visiting her parents on Chester Street, Buffalo, N. Y., for a couple of weeks.

About the later part of August, Miss Anna Eckert, of Alexander Place, Buffalo, N. Y., will go to Ashtabula, Ohio. She will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gerrity. She may remain there for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hinkle, Cleveland, en route to Canton in their motor car, stopped in Sawyerwood, Saturday afternoon, to visit friends.

Albert R. Lepley motored here from Youngstown Sunday, and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Grimm, 924 Camden Street.

Mrs. Anna Shull, Pittsburg, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Zeher, 497 Carroll Street.

The services for the deaf were held in St. Paul's Parish House by Mr. W. F. Durian, lay reader, Sunday evening, July 20th. The attendance was good. As yet no minister has been appointed to succeed Rev. B. R. Allabough, late general missionary of the Episcopal Church Mission for the Deaf of the mid-western diocese, and Grace Mission, St. Paul's Parish House, Akron, but it is sincerely hoped that the board of missions will appoint some minister in the near future.

Friends of Arthur Classen were glad to see him at the Goodyear Silent Athletic Club rooms Tuesday, after an enforced absence of about seven weeks, on account of an injured foot. He expects to be able to work before long.

On Saturday evening, July 12th, "Bob" Hogan was given a surprise birthday party at his cottage, Sawyerwood, and was presented with a fine leather traveling set. Games and chats followed to the enjoyment of the occasion. Ice-cream and cake were served. Those who celebrated with Mr. Hogan were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs H Hinkle, Miss Jane Dix, A. Haggard, M. Boyle, Albert Lenz, H. Moore, Wm. Kuntz, A. Hogenmiller, D. Hooper, H W. Porter and Vincent Dunn.

George W. Prigge, Worcester, Mass., has purchased four lots in Martin's allotment, near Springfield Lake, and expects to erect a new house for himself and family in the near future.

Cary Twyford, who left some time ago for Youngstown, is again back in Akron and is now working at the Parisian Dry Cleaning Company, as dry cleaner.

The hearing son of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Zitnik is planning to go to Huron to spend the last two weeks of next month at Camp Wa Wa, Sage's Grove, on Lake Erie, with the Akron Boy Scouts, Troop 27.

Sam Joseph and Lattimer Mines, Hazleton, Pa., and G. Hereford, Kentucky, are the latest to get work at the Goodyear.

Miller Cain, who formerly worked for the Goodyear for some time, has gone to his home in Kernersville, N. C.

About one hundred deaf mutes attended a delightful social, Saturday evening, July 19th, at the Frat hall. The "Police Station" was greatly enjoyed by all.

Vincent Dunn, 497 Carroll Street, is laid up at his home on account of injuries to his jaws and neck, which he received in an automobile accident near Alliance, Saturday morning, while en route to Pittsburg to help in celebrating his mother's birthday anniversary.

Royal Durian, foreman in the Goodyear machine shop, had the misfortune to fall on one of his ankles, recently, and may not be able to work for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ware and children motored to Salem, Saturday, where they attended a family reunion.

John E. Barnes has joined the Goodyear vacationists and is enjoying a visit to his home in Hazleton, Pa.

The Firestone Silents, including non-factory friends, held an outing at Turkeyfoot Lake, Sunday. Trucks carried the party to the lake. They spent the day in swimming, racing and pitching.

Mrs. Minnie Burt's Sunday School Class, of the Church of Christ, on East Market Street, will probably have a social at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lemen Gibson, 538 West Thornton Street, Saturday afternoon and evening, August 9th, for the benefit of the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf, which is located near Westerville.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter, or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

Mr. Thomas J. Cosgrove and Miss Susan M. Adcock were married by Father White at Francis Xavier's Church, West 16th Street, last Sunday, July 28th. The bestman was Mr. J. Gabriel and the bridesmaid, Wanda Makowski. The bride and her bridesmaid wore beautiful white dresses with georgette crepe, trimmed with crepe de chine.

After the marriage all went in automobiles to the home of the groom's mother in Brooklyn to dine, after which Mr. and Mrs. Cosgrove left for New York City to spend their honeymoon for two weeks or so. Then they will return to the groom's mother with whom they will live.

Those who attended were their immediate relatives and many hearing and deaf friends, names being too numerous to mention.

The wedding gifts covered two good-sized tables, including among others: A chest of solid silver knives, forks, spoons, from Mr. James Reilly, an old family friend; cut glass berry dish, Mr. McCormack and family; handsome gilt edged dinner set, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Melledy; cut glass flower vase, Employees of Levy & Co.; table linen, M. Croak; Japanese tray, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Brien; cut glass sugar and milk set, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel; cut glass fruit dish, Mr. and Mrs. W. McCormack; cut glass celery dish, Miss L. Berg; five-dollar goldpiece, Miss Celia Travers; silver cake knife, Mr. and Mrs. F. Adcock; cut glass fruit dish, Misses M. and A. Menton; porcelain fruit plate, John D. Shea; lemonade set, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hitchcock; cut glass candy bowl, Mr. and Mrs. Rau; two dainty water color pictures, family friends. In addition to contents of packages delayed in delivery.

CLARK A. A. NEWS.

There are more visitors at Camp Clark now than at any time during the last few years.

Bro. Ratheim and wife motored through Arverne Sunday, but stopped at Camp Clark on their way home.

Mrs. Anna Sweyd, who is sojourning at Arverne for the summer, can be found on the beach any day.

Camp Chairman Ben Friedwald and assistant Baum are always busy entertaining the crowd on Saturdays and Sundays.

Bro. Henry Hecht usually comes to Camp with a mysterious smile, but behind that smile is the sweetest of his escort.

Bro. Joe Worzel, who is spending his vacation at Camp, has taken Government examinations for a clerkship position some months ago, and has been notified that he has passed, but he must increase his weight to be eligible.

N. Y. COUNCIL K. OF D.

New York Council K. of D. desires to officially thank its many friends for helping to make their recent annual picnic a grand succeas.

At its monthly meeting it unanimously voted to donate $25 to a Fund with which to purchase a burial plot for destitute Catholic deaf. The fund is non-partisan and is under the supervision of Miss M. J. Purtell, a former teacher at St. Joseph's Institution branches, with a teaching record of more than forty years to her credit. Her affection for the deaf is beyond question. She rejoices in the successes of her many old pupils, and is always ready to lend a helping hand to all unfortunates, whether it be for material or spiritual aid. The New York Council, Knights of De l'Epee is only too glad to give her the helping hand this time, and it realizes that the amount could be spent to no better purpose than to assure her of a happy realization.

The New York Council, Knights of De l'Epee had unhesitatingly endorsed Mr. Pach's policy of coordination of the deaf of New York City, published some time ago in the JOURNAL It has never wilfully gone to the contrary. More than once it has had to postpone its regular second Saturday meeting date to allow its members to avail themselves of the opportunity of enjoying another society's social evening. It would save the Council the consequent trouble and at the same time be to the advantage of the society if the said policy is followed.

Mrs. Samuel Ehrlich, mother of Miss Katie Ehrlich, celebrated her 75th birthday on Sunday, July 20th. She was presented with a very beautiful silver loving cup by her entire family, consisting of six daughters, two sons, three sons-in-law and eleven grandchildren. All came in—one from Washington, D. C., and one from Newark, N. J. Everything was so grand—seventy-five roses and seventy-five candles on three cakes, twenty-five candles on each cake, which has pleased her so much with her own big family. At the same time Mrs. Annie Solomon, a sister of Miss Katie Ehrlich, celebrated the 25th anniversary of her wedding, and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

While we may be holding our own in the section where New York is placed on the map, and the Phillies holding their own as tail enders in the National League, it's a matter of commendation to learn the deaf of the Nutmeg State are up and doing great things. Less than a month ago, Ephphetans, or the Catholic deaf of Connecticut, presented the pastor, Rev. William F. F. Cavanaugh, with a purse of $325, for good and faithful service. Father Cavanaugh and his flock are united and progressive, and outside his church duties Father Cavanaugh is a true blue for the forward march of all the deaf.

The Conference of the Catholic deaf, to be held at St. Francis Xavier's College Theatre next month, has received endorsements from such distinguished ecclesiastics as Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop Hayes, Rev. Thomas White, and other prelates, so Mr. J. F. O'Brien, who is directing the preliminaries, informs us. The invitations to the Catholic deaf are expected to be mailed before next week. It is hoped the outcome of the Conference will result in a cementing of ties of unity and solidarity among the Catholic deaf as a class.

The Hebrew Congregation of the Deaf had an All-day Outing, at Pelham Bay Park, on July 27th. The day was intensely hot and only about sixty were present. They had games for prizes, Mrs. A. Teich and Mrs. Buttenheim being first and second in the potato race. Ben Goldwater captured the men's prize in a like race. For children, Miss Dorothy Plapinger and Donald Kenner were winners. The grounds were in fine shape, with plenty of shade trees and the bay to cool the attendance, and those who went enjoyed the day.

On Thursday, July 10th, Mr. A. V. Ballin tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League, and Mr. Max Miller was appointed Secretary pro tem. On Thursday, July 24th, Mr. Gilbert C. Braddock was elected to fill the unexpired term as Secretary. Mr. Ballin has also tendered his resignation as a member of the Committee of the Thirty-fifth Anniversary Celebration, which the President has accepted

Miss Alice Esmeralda Judge, who is spending a very pleasant vacation at the beautiful summer home of Mrs. Currier in Essex on Lake Champlain, was exceedingly surprised on Monday last, by receiving a huge number of packages of sweets, indicating that her numerous friends had not overlooked the fact that she had reached another milestone in the journey of life, and that congratulations were in order.

After a long and painful illness, Mrs. Charles J. Sanford passed away, Saturday evening, July 26th. The funeral was held at the residence, Sunday evening, Rev. John H Kent and Rev. Chester Morrison officiating. Interment was in Poughkeepsie Cemetery. She leaves a husband and daughter. The sympathy of a host of friends goes out to the surviving relatives.

Rev. Mr. Smielau, of the Western Pennsylvania mission to the deaf was in New York this week. He came by auto and made a visit to the Gallaudet Home on Sunday He returns home in a few days.

Mrs. Frank Roberts has sold her home at Carlstadt, N. J., and will move to Bayshore, L. I., early in August. She had the misfortune of dislocating her right shoulder by a fall at Brightwaters, N. J., where she is residing temporarily.

The family of Miss Elizabeth Maclaire expects to move to a private dwelling somewhere in Yorkville this month. Her brother, being a physician, requires such accommodations to meet the exigencies of his medical practice.

Rev. Dr. John Chamberlain expects to be out of bed and dressed this week, after his long illness with pneumonia. He will not be ready for his missionary duties until he gains strength.

Miss Gertrude Klein is spending two weeks' vacation with her sister, Cornel and friend, at Cobleskill, N. Y., near Adirondack Mountains. She will return home August 3d.

On Saturday last, Mr. and Mrs. Kane, John Pach and little son, Miss Marietta Williams, Alex. L. Pach, G. W. Ashley and E. A. Hodgson made a trip by boat to and from Rockaway.

Miss Dorothy G. Sherman, the sister of Misses Margaret and Eleanor Sherman, has returned home after a little more than a year's service as a Red Cross aid in France.

Mr. Robert Begy has gone to Middletown Spring, Vt., with his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. E. Begy, for his summer vacation.

The Largest Animal

The blue whale is not only the largest animal that lives to-day upon the earth or in its waters, but so far as is known, it is the largest animal that has ever lived, declares Mr. R. C. Andrews in Whale Hunting with Gun and Camera. Even those extinct reptiles, the dinosaur, which spashed along the borders of the inland seas of Wyoming and Montana a million or more years ago, could not approach a blue whale either in length or weight.

In 1903 Dr. F. A. Lucas weighed in sections a blue whale take at Newfoundland. The animal was seventy-eight feet long and thirty-five feet round the shoulders; the head was nineteen feet in length and the flukes sixteen feet from tip to tip. The total weight was sixty-three tons; the flesh weighed forty tons; the blubber, eight tons; the blood, viscera and spleen, seven tons; and the bones, eight tons.

Exaggerated accounts of the size of this species are current even in reputable books on natural history, but the largest specimen that has been measured and recorded was eighty-seven feet long. It was stranded a few years ago on the coast of New Zealand and it must have weighed at least seventy-five tons. I have measured two blue whales eighty-five feet long, but specimens of that size are very rare.

All the whalers who have hunted in the South Atlantic or Pacific tell remarkable tales of the enormous blue whales that are killed off Kergnelen and the South Georgia islands. No doubt the species sometimes reaches ninety or possibly ninety-five feet, but the stories of one-hundred and-fifteen, and one-hundred and-twenty-foot whales are certainly myths. As Dr. Lucas aptly says, "All whales shrink under the tape measure."

The principal reason why whales are able to attain such an enormous size is that their bodies are supported by the water in which they live. A bird is limited to the weight that its wings can bear up in the air. A land animal, if it becomes too large, cannot hold its body off the ground or move about rapidly and is doomed to certain destruction. But a whale has to face none of these problems and can grow without restraint. The sperm and right whales float when killed, but the fin whales usually sink, although the specific gravity of their bodies is very little greater than that of water.

Miss Beckie Newman, of Baltimore, with her parents and sister, is spending a few weeks at Atlantic City.

COLUMBUS

The July 4th picnic at the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf, under the auspices of the Columbus Advance Society, was a success beyond expectations. The day was ideal for the purpose. Two big, open auto trucks conveyed about seventy-five people from the city to the Home, while about fifty others came by trolley and autos. The committees, headed by Frank Schwartz, as general chairman, were ready for them, and supplied their every want. There was an abundance of eats for all, thanks to the the care of Charles Toher, assisted by the matron of the Home, who prepared twenty-seven pies and other good things. She also contributed a large quantity of home-made root beer to be sold along with the rest of the city drinks, and believe us, it was about the most delicious drink of the whole.

The Fortune Wheel, on which a fine box of candy is given on each winning number out of $1.00's worth of numbers sold, was in evidence all day and earned a generous sum.

Owing to the great holiday demand in the city, the ice cream was late in coming—after 3 P.M.—but after that it was fairly pounced upon and all gone in the late evening but four gallons of bricks, which was presented to the Home. Also a large quantity of eats left on hand was turned over to the Home.

In all, nearly $110 was realized for the Home Fund of the Advance Society. This is to be held for furnishing rooms in the new men's cottage, when it shall be built. The Society has already given $700 toward the building fund.

There were no athletic contests or speeches indulged in. Everybody just visited, chatted, ate and rested, and was satisfied.

A party of fifteen motored over in a truck from Springfield, generously loaned gratis by the Kelly Truck Co., for whom several mutes work. They spent the night at the Home, and Saturday, day and night in the city, leaving for home early Sunday morning, and arriving there too late, too tired and too hungry to greet Mr. Charles at church that morning. "Their spirit was willing, but their flesh was weak."

The large number of visitors present from abroad was the pleasing feature of the day. Besides the fifteen people from Springfield and Dayton, there were the Wrights from Mt. Gilead, and Wesley Huebners, from Marion, both of whom came in their own Fords. Messrs. Cowden, Weber, Frater, Richardson, John Wondrack, La Fountain, Wm. Kuntz and Shirer, came from Akron and vicinity. Other outsiders were: Mr. and Mrs. Sooy Dresback and children; Warren Shafer, Carl Stevens, Marie Gross, Eva Berger and Irene Krouse.

A specially interested visitor was the Rev. Henry Rutherford, of Chicago, Ill., sent by his people to visit and report on the M. E. Centenary Exposition, in Columbus. He also held a religious service at the Home the following Sunday.

Some gloom was felt by the picnickers on that day, over the fact that the lives of the two oldest men were hanging in the balance that day. However, they survived until the following Sunday, when both slept away, William Turner in the morning, and Peter Koehl in the afternoon. The remains of the latter were taken to his nephew's residence in the city, to be interred in Greenlawn Cemetery. The funeral services over Mr. Turner were held at the home, Tuesday afternoon, the 8th, by the Rev. U. E Read, and burial was in the Home lot in the township cemetery. Both men were nearly seventy-three years old. Mr. Turner had his hip broken last November, and it never knit together. His daughter from Port Clinton gave her father loving, attentive care for two weeks before he passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Ohlemacher, and Mrs. Zorn, have been at the Home the past month, relieving Mr. Chapman of much of the farm work, while he is rapidly recovering his health. We hope that by this time he will be nearly himself, or even better.

Mrs. Leo Frater broke up her home July 6th, and went, with her babe, to her parents in Guernsey County for a month's stay, after which she will join her husband in Akron. The Columbus deaf will miss the family.

The Zells are now enjoying the use of a Ford sedan, a present to Mrs. Zell from her brothers.

Mrs. August Beckert, who recently underwent an operation at Grant Hospital, is doing finely. At last report she was resting at the School, while Mr. Beckert was doing some painting work.

The Columbus Ladies' Aid Society has added a fine, large wall clock to the assembly room of the Home for the Deaf. The brass weights, the brass pendulum and the second hand, slowly, but surely ticking away the evening of life, are attractive features of the clock.

Treasurer Charles, of the Home, has received from Mrs. A. A. Monnin, of Canfon, $27.10, for the Cottage Fund. Of this sum, $7.10 was earned at a picnic held at Roy Brown's place, on May 30th, and the rest is a donation from the Canton Society's treasury.

FREMONT, July 8.—Mutes from Northwestern Ohio held their fifth annual business and social meeting at Birchard Park, here. More than 200 members were present. The association has set aside Independence Day for these meetings, and Cedar Point was selected as the place for next year. The address of welcome was delivered by Edward Hetzel, of Toledo, retiring president.

These officers were elected: President, Anthony Ceresi, Sandusky; Vice-President, Jacob Helmer, Galion; Secretary, Mrs. Anthony Ceresi, Sandusky; Treasurer, William McGray, Sandusky.

CINNCINNATI

At six o'clock, Saturday evening, June 14th, a supper was given Mr. Edgas Hay, in honor of his birthday, at the residence of his parents in Covington, Ky. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cottner, Mrs. Anna Pettypiece, nee Phillips, Misses Ethel Pollard, Helen Bliss, Margaret Wheatley, Fannie Knott and Evelyn Wortman, and Messrs. Manard Bush, Julius Salzer, Harry O'Donnell, Wylie Rose and Exie Saylor. All had a good time.

More than fifteen persons went to Chester Park Beach, Saturday afternoon, June 21st, to enjoy the swimming till late evening.

About one hundred and twenty-five attended the picnic on the grounds of Mrs. W. E. Hoy, near Mt. Healthy, on July 4th, under the auspices of the Cincinnati N. F. S. D. No. 10. Most of them had a pleasant time under the shade of the trees, and enjoyed the playing of games. The Singles defeated the Married team in an indoor baseball game, by the score of 23 to 11.

Abraham Goldberg was away on his vacation the early part of the month, spending two weeks in Dayton, Cleveland and Buffalo.

A Lawn Fete will be given under the auspices of the M. E. Ladies' Aid Society, August 9th, at 2616 Mt. Auburn Avenue, for the benefit of the Ohio Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf (Men's Cottage), from 2 to 10 P.M. Admission will be ten cents, including ice-cream. Everybody is welcome.

A basket picnic was given by the Knights of De l'Epee, at the grove of Mrs. Kunkel's residence near Burnet Woods Park, Sunday, June 29th. There was an attendance of about fifty and all had a good time.

MANSFIELD

John Schild, Paul Douglass and Charles Canfield, of Mansfield, attended the reunion at the School for the Deaf, in Flint, Mich., June 13th to 15th. It was a success and the visitors had a swell time.

John Schild, of the North American Watch Factory took in the July Fourth picnic of the deaf, at Fremont. Afterwards, he took a trolley for Cedar Point, where he staid for three days for a rest.

Leroy Schwartz, who finished school last month, has secured a good job in the Westinghouse Electric Products Company.

Mrs John Fulwider, who has been ill with a severe case of nervous prostration for several months, is recovering slowly.

Obituary.

FRANK E. W. MCMAHON.

It was indeed a sad news, one that deeply touches every heart in the silent community. Albany Division, No. 51, N. F. S. D., paid memorial tribute to Frank McMahon whose death on the 7th inst. brings the deepest regret everywhere. The service was well attended and the exercises were impressive.

Of this bright, amiable young man, the sole confort of his bereaved parents, and fond pride of his wife and unnumbered friends, naught but good can be said. Brave, manly and generous, his death brings a bitter cup of sorrow to their lips. He was attacked with what later was found to be acute appendicitis, in a picture show with his wife. Arriving at the Troy hospital, he readily and cheerfully submitted to an operation, and all went well until the 6th inst, when word was sent that all hopes were gone, and death came on the morning of Monday, 7th inst.

Frank McMahon died in the 31st year of his life. Born in Troy in 1888, all his life was spent there. He left the Rome School and Kendall School, returning to Troy, engaging in a collar factory and linotype plant. In April, 1918, he became a member of Albany Division, No. 51, N. F. S. D., by initiation. Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, services were held at the family home and were largely attended, the service being conducted by Rev. Enos, assisted by Arthur T. Bailey, followed by the church and burial services. The bearers were all members of Albany Division, No. 51.

The floral remembrances were numerous and many of exquisite design.

DETROIT.

Members and friends of the Episcopal Church attended the Bible Class, under the direction of Walter Carl, at the Parish House, Sunday, July 13th.

Prof. H. C. Hammond was present and delivered a very good talk. The subject was the Bible. It is designated as the Book of Books. It is the word of God, and is indeed "a lamp unto our path." There is no reading so inspiring, and the worldly spirit sees in the Bible only the printed page. The heart of the Bible is in the Gospels, and we thereby gain strength to resist evil. On account of hot weather, the meetings will be ommitted on the morning of Sunday, July 27th, and reopen on the first Sunday of September. The members have set August 17th for a basket picnic at Bob-Lo. The steamer leaves at 9:30 A.M.

The D. A. D.'s home is rapidly becoming a busy place, and since the installation of the second new billiard table, many of the members are attending the club daily. The club is a beautiful place to rest for an hour, which fact is being appreciated by its members. The club has a new calcutator (adding machine) on trial, and will probably purchase it if it proves satisfactory.

The Beaver family and a few friends enjoyed a private picnic, Saturday, July 19th, at Lake Orion. They motored out and on arrival set to unpacking the baskets, from which were produced the components of an old-time pre-war picnic dinner. Nobody felt the pinch of famine.

Have you seen that big skinned nose Joe Pastori is wearing these days? He, it is declared, got it by playing leap frog at the beach while camping in the Adirondack Mountains. Joe returned home recently from a month's vacation in the East.

Clyde Barnett has returned to resume his old place at the Stern Company, July 13th, after celebrating his vacation in Boston, N. Y. City, Albany, Rochester, Buffalo, Erie, Pa., and Columbus.

Herman Ware returned home to Cleveland, Ohio, Sunday evening, July 20th, after spending a few days with his wife, who is visiting with relatives for two weeks in Detroit.

Mrs. Adolph Kresin is home in Port Huron, feeling refreshed and rested after sojourning her short vacation in Toledo, Ohio, and Corrunia, Michigan.

Ralph Carson was in Toledo, Ohio, on a pleasure trip, Fourth of July.

David Surkes, of New York City, came to the Convention City May 30th, and had a lucrative position at the F. Buhle Company, but he expects to return to New York soon to visit his mother. He has been in Akron, Ohio, working for the Goodyear Tire Company the past seven months. He came to New York from Austria, when he was fifteen years old, and was a pupil of the Lexington School for five years.

Miss Eva Elliott, of Toronto, Canada, is a guest of Mrs. Kehn Wilson, of New Baltimore.

Little Frederick Jacobs had a pet rabbit given him by his big relatives some time ago, and the family were aroused one night to find the rabbit was dead. A dog had bitten it.

Harry Farman is out of town on a pleasure trip for two months.

John Braithwaite, of Chatham, Canada, was in the City of Straits for a visit, and he has secured work at the Canada Ford Company, at Windsor, Ont., over the river.

Several mutes have secured positions at the Burrough Adding Company, among them Merton Fielding. Congratulations.

Albert Sisson, of Pontiac, was in Kitchener, Ont., visiting relatives for ten days, during the second week of July.

Miss Lula Faulkaber and Helena Warsaw, both of Akron, Ohio, are among the twenty-five mutes working at Wadsworth Company.

Mrs. John Sohnlein has gone to North Peninsular, Mich., for a vacation.

Simon Himmelschein, who has been in Detroit since spring, starts westward (for home) August 16th. He will stop in Chicago and other points, before reaching his destination. The Detroit Community enjoyed his acquaintance. Come again.

Sam Orenstein, who hails from New York City, has a position as Metal Cutter at the Ireland & Matthews Company.

Miss Jessie Stevens, of Rockford, Ill., has made many friends in Detroit, and has decided to stay in the Convention City, by accepting a place as driller at the Burrough & Adding Company.

A number of merry girls, dressed in the "latest styles," made a surprise call on Miss Jessie Stevens, Saturday evening, July 12th. The "Call" was purely informal. Games, "News," chatting and the "style" criticism, being the usual diversion at a "pink tea." However the young ladies claim it to be the "bestest" party they attended. A delightful supper was served.

Prof. H. C. Hammond is in the city visiting his son and daughter-in-law, Captain and Mrs. Hammond recently returned from overseas duties. Mrs. Hammond is very active in social and charitable circles.

William Rheiner's favorite sister, wife of Wm. Finck, who died at Harper Hospital, Thursday morning, after a short illness, was buried Saturday afternoon, July 19th.
